Itinerary

We will begin our day with visiting inside of the U.S. Capitol (90 minutes), the home for the US Congress. The U.S. Capitol was established at 1793, it has become the symbol of American people and government. We will also visit the Library of Congress (30 minutes) in the U.S. Capitol; it has served the United States congress for more than 200 years. After that, we will head to George Washington's Mount Vernon (120 minutes). After the death of his older half-brother, Lawrence, in 1752, George Washington took up residence at the house that his father, Augustine Washington, had built in 1735. Here, he was notified of becoming the first President at the age of 57. The interiors have been meticulously restored to their appearance in 1799. Our next stop in the afternoon is the International Spy Museum (60 minutes), which is the only museum that only exhibits spy related contents. It shows a large amount of Spy equipment collected from all over the world. Moreover, there is a James Bond series movie exhibition in the museum. Visitors will find the history of the series movie, and excellent Spy equipment of James Bond, even include the classical Bond vehicles: a Jaguar and an Aston Martin.
