Day 2 Key West (Self-drive)

It is 170 miles from Miami to Key West through 32 islands and 42 bridges. It is also known as “Duck Island” because of its shape, and also the international Key West Film Festival was held here every year! World famous Seven-Mile Bridge is another highlighted attraction here. It takes eight years to complete and is quite famous for the magnificent scenery. The former California governor Arnold Schwarzenegger’s movie “True Lies” was also filmed in Key West. The amazing scenery along the south nation and colorful beaches will make you feel in a fairy land. Here guests can take pictures with its landmark “the edge of the sky, the rim of the sea”. The next famous stop is the home of the former residence---Nobel Prize winners Hemingway. After that, tourists can buy some souvenirs in local stores. On the way back to hotel, guests will have a chance to see the fabulous sunset.

Hotel: 3-Star Economical Hotel in Key West

Day 3 Key West – The islands of the Dry Tortugas–Miami (Self Driving)

The islands of the Dry Tortugas are by far one of the most visited but most inaccessible islands that also happen to be a national park. Aboard our comfortable seaplanes, every passenger gets a headset from which they can hear the knowledgeable pilot talk about the sights you will see on your way out to the islands. Seaplane passengers are offered snorkels and 2 bottles of drink water.
