Tour introduction

Day 1

紐約 -----Bus----- 費城 -----Bus----- 阿米什人村

全天

Departure from New York in the morning, we will head to Philadelphia. First, we will visit One Liberty Observation Deck, which is the only observation deck in Philadelphia. We can see William Penn' s statue standing on the top of city hall which reminds us of the Quakers' creed in this city: the city of brotherly love. We will leave One Liberty Observation for the Reading Terminal Market for lunch. The variety of food, delis, and restaurants in this one spot is overwhelming. And then we will visit Amish Farm Village.

Itinerary:

New York → One Liberty Observation Deck → Reading Terminal Market → Amish Farm Village

Day 2

Washington DC -----Bus----- New York

全天

We will visit Washington, D.C. Monuments, museums, and Americana characterize this historic city. We will visit the Jefferson Memorial. The memorial is located by the Tidal Basin, from where you will have a stunning view of the Cherry Blossom blooming along the shore during the view. Later you will have a chance to take the D.C. Cherry Blossom Cruise for sightseeing along the Potomac River. With a backdrop of full blooming cherry trees on the banks of the Potomac River, you can also see the most iconic landmarks in the area.

Itinerary:

National Air and Space Museum (50 mins) → Capitol Hill (Outside Visit, 20 mins) → The White House (Outside visit, 20 mins) → Lincoln Memorial, Korean War Memorial, Vietnam Veterans Memorial (40 mins) → Jefferson Memorial (30 mins) → D.C. Cherry Blossom Cruise (Optional, 60 mins)
We will also pass by Thomas Jefferson Memorial, Washington Monument, WWII Memorial and more.

Special Notes:

1. Each year, the National Cherry Blossom Festival celebrates spring in Washington, DC. As for this year, the official schedule is March 20 - April 13. However, the view of the cherry blossom is subject to change due to weather conditions. Furthermore, reservation is not available for the Cherry Blossom Cruise based on the busy season in D.C.
2. The cruise tour is subject to change regarding the cruise company' s schedule as well as the tourist volume. In case that cruise was not in service, we will go to the renowned Madame Tussauds' President Gallery instead.

National Air and Space Museum

The Smithsonian's National Air and Space Museum maintains the world's largest and most significant collection of aviation and space artifacts, encompassing all aspects of human flight, as well as related works of art and archival materials. It operates two landmark facilities that, together, welcome more than eight million visitors a year, making it the most visited museum in the country. It also is home to the Center for Earth and Planetary Studies.

The US Capitol

The famous United States Capitol is the meeting place of the US Congress, and has been for more than 200 years. The building is famous for its elaborate dome and intricately designed, detailed columns.

The White House

The world-famous White House in Washington, DC is the official residence of the president of the United States and the place where most of the work is done. The facade of this neoclassical mansion is a global icon.

Lincoln Memorial

This iconic American monument honors the 16th president of the United States. Abraham Lincoln was president during the American Civil War, and is most famous for the Emancipation Proclamation that freed all of the slaves in the US.

Thomas Jefferson Memorial

The Thomas Jefferson Memorial is a memorial to the third president of the United States. The impressive building is neoclassical in design and has been standing since 1943. It sees more than two million visitors every year. It's only available during the Cherry Blossom time.

DC Sightseeing Cruise

The Potomac River runs along Washington, DC, the capital city of the United States of America. Visitors to this famous locale can opt to see many of the area's most historic landmarks and memorials in a unique way.
