Itinerary

Day 1

One Liberty Observation Deck—ICE! @ National Harbor OR Tanger Outlets—National Christmas tree

Reference Hotel: Holiday Inn/ Red Roof Inn MD or equivalent

Depart from New York, we are going to visit Philadelphia’s newest attraction—One Liberty Observation Deck, see Philly like ever before from 883 feet above street level, enjoy incredible views of City Hall, Delaware River, Love Park, and Philly’s other top points of interest. Next, customers can pick one from two different destinations: (1) Gaylord National Resort & Convention Center’s amazing ICE! Christmas on the Potomac Indoor Ice Festival. Enjoy more than TWO MILLION pounds of hand carved colorful ice sculptures kept at a chilly 9 degrees, experience two-story ice slides, visitor also can travel through the North Pole, sit inside Santa's sleigh ... (2) Tanger Outlets at National Harbor for your Christmas shopping; the atmosphere is pretty and joyful, lots of choice and leading brands available. Happy shopping! In the afternoon, we will continue to visit the National Christmas Tree in front of the White House south lawn. The grand illumination of the Christmas lights on the tree by the President of the United States early in the Christmas season is an annual televised event and the start of month-long festivities known as the Pageant of Peace. Nearby smaller trees and other decorations leading up to the National Christmas Tree are referred to as the Pathway to Peace.

Day 2 Basilica of the National Shrine—Franciscan Monastery—Amish Farm—Hershey's Chocolate World—New York

We will visit the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception, which is the largest Roman Catholic Church in the US, and is one of the ten largest churches in the world. Byzantine-Romanesque in style, its massive, one-of-a-kind superstructure is home to over 70 chapels and oratories that relate to the peoples, cultures and traditions. We also visit the Holy Land —Franciscan Monastery, the grounds and monastery include many replicas of the iconic sites in the Holy Land. Heading north, we visit the authentic Amish farm in Lancaster, PA, which is more than 300 years old, and is a truly an educational experience for the whole family. This 25-acre farm is dedicated to showing people about the Amish lifestyle in a fun and constructive way. After lunch in Lancaster, we will have a sweet tour of the Hershey's Chocolate World. Follow cocoa beans on a delicious journey in this immersive chocolate making tour. See, feel, hear and smell the transformation of cocoa beans to Hershey's famous chocolate on this fun tour. Afterward, head back to New York City.
