Itinerary Highlights

- ❖ Visiting Mark Twain's house, enjoy the beauty of autumn Connecticut

Itinerary

Mark Twain's house – Bushnell Park – Talcott Mountain State Park

Itinerary	Mark Twain's house → Bushnell Park → Talcott Mountain State Park
-----------	--

- ❖ Mark Twain's house
Twain's mansion is Tiffany decorated and adorned with holiday trinkets and ornaments just like it was when Twain lived there.
- ❖ Bushnell Park
Park in downtown Hartford for Maple Foliage viewing. Founded in 1860, Bushnell was the first municipal park in the nation to be conceived, built, and paid for by citizens. Located at the core of the City of Hartford, visitors can gain a magnificent visual point for the city. We will be able to see the most famous landmarks of this historic city such as Soldiers & Sailors Memorial Arch, Connecticut State Capitol, Corning Fountain, Bushnell Park Carousel, Performance Pavilion, and Park River.
- ❖ Talcott Mountain State Park
one of the top spots for foliage viewing in Connecticut. This state park features a 165-foot historic tower (Heublein Tower) that offers a panoramic view of the Talcott Mountain and Hartford, especially in the fall. Gilbert Heublein, a hotel, food and beverage magnate who was known for producing A1 Steak Sauce and Smirnoff vodka, built this tower in 1914 as a family resort for the Heubleins and their guests. The Hartford Times later on acquired the tower after Gilbert Heublein's death and they host parties regularly with famous guests and celebrities. It was in here that Dwight D. Eisenhower was asked to run for President of the United States in the 1952 election.

Although a 1.25-mile easy hike is required to get to the tower and an additional 120 steps will be needed to get to the top of the tower, but it's totally worth the commanding view at the end.
