Itinerary

Korean Pear Picking – Longwood Garden

From New York to the largest South Korean farmers' markets in America, you can enjoy the fresh air and beautiful view. Also, you can taste the fresh hand pick pear by yourself, and bring them back to your home. (The farm will charge the fruit per pound)

The area that is not Longwood Gardens has been functioning as a public garden in some form or another since 1798. By the middle of the 19th century, the property was an impressive arboretum.
