Itinerary

Day 1

New York City in-depth Tour

Wall St – liberty cruise – USS Intrepid – Times Square - MoMA – Fifth Ave (150mins) – Central Park (Lady M cake taste)

Hotel : Crowne (or Ramada) Plaza/Sheraton/Hilton/Courtyard by Marriott or equivalent

At a first glance, travelling around the entire of New York City seems like the mission impossible; however, our highly organized tour is especially designed for you to feel the core spirit of the New York, by visiting amounts of famous landmarks and museums to learn more of its unique history, and shopping in the world top-brand boutiques! Start from the world famous financial and securities trading center – Wall Street, taking pictures with the symbol of New York Stock Exchange - Charging Bull. Guests will have a chance to take a sightseeing cruise on the Hudson River to enjoy the city from a totally different view, as well as take pictures with the backdrops of Statue of Liberty and Brooklyn Bridge. In addition, USS INTREPID, the national heritage that costs $120 million, is reopening for visitors. Concorde supersonic airliner and a variety of aircrafts will be all in the exhibition for the guests to visit. Later we will visit MoMA, it has been important in developing and collecting modernist art, and is often identified as one of the largest and most influential museums of modern art in the world. Or you can go to the fifth avenue, also the heart of Midtown, enjoy luxury shopping experience. Stroll around Central park which is the most visited urban park in the United States, and take a break to taste Lady M, one of the most popular handmade cakes! Our tour bus will take guests to “World Crossroads”, Times Square. It got its name from the New York Times building. You will see the most crowded and most prosperous business blocks in the world. You can also go to Ripley’s Believe It or Not. It is one of the most entertaining museums in the world.

Day 2

New York City Tour

WTC & Ground Zero (3 hours) – United Nations Headquarter (guide tour into the Hall) - Metropolitan Museum (150mins)

Hotel : Crowne (or Ramada) Plaza/Sheraton/Hilton/Courtyard by Marriott or equivalent

In the morning, we will visit the One World Observatory. One World Trade Center, as the icon of New York, is located at the southwest most of Manhattan, is the highest skyscraper in New York and America, at same time, it is ranked No.4 in the world with the height of 1,776ft. This number is exactly same as the year of the Declaration of Independence post. Upon entry, Guests are greeted in the Global Welcome Center, where a large video board features salutation in an array of languages, and a dynamically generated world map highlights the hometowns of visitors. After, guests will have chance to experience a program titled “Voices,” which tells the personal stories of the men and women who built One World Trade Center. Next, “Foundations” provides Guests with a close-up view of the very bedrock on which the building stands. Start by ascending to the top of the tallest building in the Western Hemisphere in less than sixty seconds, guests could then look out the horizon and feel the city’s invincible spirit.

Next we can visit the 911 Memorial & Museum. Here, the Memorial’s twin reflecting pools are each nearly an acre in size and feature the largest manmade waterfalls in the North America. The pools sit within the footprints where the Twin Towers once stood with the 3000 names of the people who died in the 911 terrorist attacks. The National September 11 Memorial Museum serves as the country’s principal institution concerned with exploring the implications of the events of 9/11, documenting the impact of those events and exploring 911’s continuing significance.

Then, let’s take a look and visit Oculus. With an additional 290,000 square feet of exciting, multi-level retail and dining space, the World Trade Center site is the focal point of Lower Manhattan.

Of course, we will not miss the famous Metropolitan Museum of Art (150mins in-depth tour). The Metropolitan Museum of Art is the largest art museum in the United States with collections of more than 2 million works of art.

Lastly, we will visit Headquarters of United Nations The headquarters of the UN is a complex that has served as the official headquarters of the United Nations. Although it is situated in New York City, the land occupied by the United Nations Headquarters and the spaces of buildings that it rents are under the sole UN and not the U.S. government. We will visit Headquarter of United Nations Lobby (Government-issued photo identification is required to enter the United Nations. For security reasons, children under 5 years of age are not permitted on tour. If visiting is not available or the United Nations closes for certain reasons, we will visit outside of the UN and take pictures for memory.). Into the night, Broadway musicals are one of the most celebrated symbols of the city. You will have a chance to watch the world admired Broadway shows upon your request. (Note: please book the tickets in advance since seats are limited. You can consult your tour guides for tickets and price.)

Day 3 West Point – Outlets Shopping – Home

Guest will visit the United States Military Academy at West Point, also known as West Point or The Academy, which is one of the oldest military academies. West Point is also the oldest continuously occupied military post in America which can date back to the Revolutionary War. The tour will be led by the Academy's official tour guide. (Please note: All Foreign National visitors, no matter their age, must provide a valid passport and visa, and present their own form of identification. All U.S. Citizens age 16 and older must provide and present their own valid photo identification such as a current valid driver's license or passport, or school ID (must be school-age). Anyone under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult.) Next, we will go shopping at the world's finest outlet Woodbury Common Premium Outlets. The merchandises will be on sale for 25% to 65% savings with assorted designer and name brands such as Burberry, Coach, Dolce & Gabbana, Fendi, Prada, and etc.
