Itinerary

Day 1

Philadelphia—Yale University — The Breakers

Hotel : Quality Inn Middleboro/ Foxboro/Holiday Inn Mansfield Foxboro or equivalent

In the morning, our first stop is Yale University. Founded in 1701, Yale University is the nation's third oldest institution of higher education in the Ivy League. With the campus tour guide, you can stroll leisurely in the ancient campus and will have an amazing experience of the academic atmosphere (60 minutes).

After lunch, tour continues to Newport, Rhode Island. Through the famous Newport Bridge, you will see the luxurious The Breakers mansion (75 minutes). Here, we can personally experience the glory of the American gold rush era of wealth. The 1895 mansion was patterned after a Renaissance palace. No matter the unique decoration of the building or the delicate artworks were all handcrafted in Europe then shipped to the location.

Day 2

Cambridge— Boston

Hotel : Red Roof Plus Boston Woburn/Holiday Inn Hotel & Suites Boston Peabody or equivalent

After breakfast, tour continues in Boston. We will head to the historic Cambridge City in Massachusetts and visit Harvard University, another member of the Ivy League, which enjoys the reputation, wealth and influence in the world, and is renowned as the U.S. government think tanks, often ranked first in the world universities. Lead by official tour guide, you will amble in Harvard's oldest campus and take pictures with the statue of John Harvard, known as the "Statue of Three Lies" (60 minutes). Next we will visit the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, which was established in 1861 (30 minutes).

At lunch, we will visit Quincy Market (Faneuil Hall Marketplace). Bustling Quincy Market is probably the oldest bazaar in the United States. It is opportune for strolling through, or to get a taste of the historical ambience as well as to pick out souvenirs among the assorted merchants and artisans (60 minutes).

Fun will begin as soon as you board the Boston Duck Tour, a historical tour of the city of Boston using replica World War II amphibious landing vehicles. You will cruise by all the places that make Boston a city of firsts, explore the Freedom Trail, and the best of Boston will be unfolded before your eyes (90 minutes).

After the Duck Tour, we will visit the Boston Museum of Science (80 minutes). Along with over 700 interactive exhibits, the museum features a number of live presentations throughout the building every day, along with shows at the Charles Hayden Planetarium and the Mugar Omni Theater, the only domed IMAX screen in New England.

In the evening, we will have the opportunity to enjoy Boston's most famous feast – Lobster.

Day 3

Roger William Park Zoo - USS Nautilus - Philadelphia

On the way back to Philadelphia, we will visit Roger Williams Park Zoo, The zoo is one of the oldest zoos in the country. It provides visitors the opportunity to see animals from all over the globe – some more than a million years old. Visitors have the opportunity to feed giraffes and harbor seals, as well as an array of farmyard animals.

And then we will visit the USS Nautilus (SSN-571). It is located on the east bank of the Thames River near New London, CT; New London Naval Submarine Base was the birthplace of the submarine force. It was originally a Navy yard, converted to a submarine base in 1916, and greatly expanded in World War II. USS Nautilus was the world's first operational nuclear-powered submarine. The vessel was the first submarine to complete a submerged transit of the North Pole on 3 August 1958. Nautilus was decommissioned in 1980 and designated a National Historic Landmark in 1982. The submarine has been preserved as a museum ship in New London, Connecticut, where the vessel receives around 250,000 visitors per year.
